

On Some Multifluid Systems

Milan Pokorný

Charles University, Praha, Faculty of Mathematics and Physics
POKORNY@KARLIN.MFF.CUNI.CZ

Abstract

We consider certain classes of models for multicomponent fluids of the Baer–Nunziato type and consider questions of existence of weak/dissipative measure-valued solutions, its weak/measure valued–strong uniqueness questions as well as low Mach number limits. It is a joint work with Ewelina Zatorska from University of Warwick.